SETTLEMENT COUNSEL CIVIL APPEALS MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

The United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit seeks an experienced attorney to serve as Settlement Counsel in San Juan, Puerto Rico. The Settlement Counsel in Puerto Rico will share the position with the Boston-based Settlement Counsel and will work 2/5 time at 2/5 salary. The CAMP Settlement Counsel facilitates settlement on appeal by screening civil cases for suitability for preargument conferences, conducting preargument conferences, and preparing conference orders and recommendations concerning procedural motions.

Substantial experience practicing law, including significant litigation experience, and experience with alternate dispute resolution techniques are required. Judicial experience in a local, state or federal court, knowledge of federal substantive and procedural law, and knowledge of the local legal community in Puerto Rico are desirable. The salary range for this position is $31,117 - $53,564, plus a cost of living allowance currently set at 11.5%. Send resume by February 28, 2006, to Gary H. Wente, Circuit Executive, Office of the Circuit Executive, 1 Courthouse Way, Suite 3700, Boston, MA 02210.

Applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, age, gender, religion, ethnicity, national origin or disability. As a condition of employment, the selected candidate must successfully complete a ten-year background investigation and every five years thereafter will be subject to an updated investigation similar to the initial one.
